NOTIFICATION

This is to bring to your attention that the provisional results of the December 2024/January 2025 examinations, as published on the Samarth Portal, do not include grace marks.

This initial publication on the Samarth Portal is intended to provide students with their raw scores obtained in the examinations.

As per university, the final amended results—excluding NEP programme students and students of the first semester—will be declared subsequently after incorporating grace marks in accordance with the relevant university guidelines.

Please inform the concerned students and faculty that the currently visible results on the portal are subject to revision and should not be treated as final for the purpose of progression, re-evaluation, or issuing official transcripts.

The amended results with grace marks (where applicable) will be communicated and published at a later date, and necessary steps will be taken to ensure transparency and fairness in the final outcome.

We seek your cooperation in disseminating this information within your institution and advising students accordingly.
