Subject: Suspension Letter for Indiscipline and Misconduct

Dear Mr. Brij Bhati,

This letter serves as an official notice of your suspension from Department of Management Gurugram University, Gurugram for a period of one week, effective from 19-3-2025 to 25-3-2025, due to your involvement in an act of indiscipline and fighting with another student. Such behavior is in direct violation of the institution's code of conduct and is deemed unacceptable.

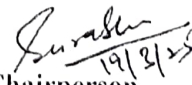

After a thorough review of the incident and discussions with relevant authorities, it has been determined that disciplinary action is necessary to maintain order and decorum within the institution. Your conduct has disrupted the learning environment and has not been in alignment with the ethical and behavioral standards expected from students.

During the suspension period, you are strictly prohibited from attending classes, accessing campus facilities, and participating in any academic or extracurricular activities. Failure to comply with this suspension may result in further disciplinary actions, including extended suspension or expulsion.

You are expected to reflect on this matter and ensure that such actions are not repeated in the future. Upon your return, you may be required to meet with the disciplinary committee to discuss your re-joining in the institution.

If you have any queries regarding this matter, you may contact the administration office.
