13. Best practices (Describe at least two best practices)

1. Community Engagement and Mental Health Awareness Initiatives

The department actively engages with the community through outreach programs such as village adoptions, mental health awareness drives, and school-based interventions. Events like Mann Tarang, Talk Campaign - Empower Hope, and World Mental Health Day activities demonstrate the department's commitment to promoting psychological well-being beyond the classroom. These initiatives help bridge the gap between academic learning and real-world application by encouraging students to participate in psychological assessments, awareness campaigns, and interactive sessions with different communities.

2. Industry Collaboration and Student Training

The department fosters strong academic-industry partnerships through MoU with reputed institutions such as VIMHANS, New Delhi. These collaborations provide students with hands-on exposure to clinical settings, research opportunities, and internships. The department's efforts to obtain RCI accreditation for M.Phil. and Professional Diploma programs further enhance the professional credibility and employability of its students.

3. Well-Equipped Laboratories and Research Facilities

To promote practical learning and research excellence, the department has upgraded its psychology laboratory with new equipment and an extensive library collection focusing on clinical psychology. The department also has a functional clinic, SUKOON, which offers hands-on training opportunities for students to practice psychological assessments, counselling, and therapeutic interventions under expert supervision.
